

Download Anglo-norman Studies I: Proceedings Of The Battle Conference 1978

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary sources. We are pleased to offer this list of full text of books and articles about medieval military history. We thank the authors and publishers for their permission in republishing this material. In 1170 William Marshal was appointed head of the mesnie (military) household of the young Prince Henry by King Henry II. From this time until young Henry's death in June of 1183, Marshal was responsible for protecting, training and running the military household of the heir. The Gesta Herwardi says Hereward returned to England a few days after the death of Count Baldwin V of Flanders, who died on 1 September 1067. The Gesta says that he discovered that his family's lands had been taken over by the Normans and his brother killed with his head then placed on a spike at the gate to his house. Hereward took revenge on the Normans who killed his brother while they were ... - Anglo-norman Studies I: Proceedings Of The Battle Conference 1978