

Download Edward V. Rickenbacker Poster: 94th Aero Squadron

The following is a list of flying aces from the United States of America who served in World War I. This is a partial list of original Air Service, United States Army "Aero Squadrons" before and during World War I. Units formed after 1 January 1919 are not listed. Aero Squadrons were the designation of the first United States Army aviation units until the end of World War I. These units consisted of combat flying, training, ground support, construction and other components of the Air Service. Publication 528- Veterans and The Military on Stamps July 2003 Sending a powerful message requires a powerful tool. The mail is one of the most powerful - and easily accessible - communication tools available today. - Edward V. Rickenbacker Poster: 94th Aero Squadron