

Download Permission To Travel

officer, airline, or travel company may ask you to provide some form of letter of consent if your child is traveling internationally with only one parent or with another adult, such as a grandparent, aunt, uncle, etc. The sample letter below is a guide only. You may also wish to have the letter of consent notarized. A Child Travel Consent allows minors to travel without their parents or legal guardians being present. This form can be used when a child will either be traveling alone or with another adult who is not their legal guardian (for example, a grandparent, aunt or uncle, friend, teacher, etc.). Child Travel Consent Forms allow your minor child to travel within the US or internationally with an adult. A non-parent adult may include a grandparent, non-custodial parent, older sibling, sports coach, travel guide or other chaperone. The sample form below is a guide only. You are also encouraged to have the consent form notarized. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. You can also contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm travel entry requirements. Minor Travel ... Children traveling within the United States with only one parent or without either parent have few requirements. Special requirements for parental permission primarily affect children traveling ... Recommended Consent Letter for Children Travelling Abroad The following sample consent letter, provided by Global Affairs Canada, can be modified to meet your specific needs. For instructions and an interactive form you can use to create a customized letter, visit travel.gc.ca/letter. To whom it may concern, I / We, What Permission To Travel or Consent to Travel Letters Do. A consular officer at the U.S. Office of Children's Issues verified that many countries require a Permission to Travel letter with parents' notarized signatures, plus identification for the child (certified birth certificate or passport), and that both are essential. Child Travel Consent Letter (Free!) If children are not travelling with both their parents, (ie: if they are travelling alone, or with another adult), this form can be used to give permission for the named adult to travel with the child. Permission to Travel Letter. Send this letter when you are giving someone else, such as an employee, permission to travel. Include all pertinent details, such as the traveler's name, dates of travel, and travel destination. A consent letter is not a legal requirement in Canada, but it can simplify travel for Canadian children, as it may be requested by immigration authorities when entering or leaving a foreign country or by Canadian officials when re-entering Canada. - Permission To Travel