In 2006, Atmel released microcontrollers based on the 32-bit AVR32 architecture. This was a completely different architecture unrelated to the 8-bit AVR, intended to compete with the ARM-based processors. It had a 32-bit data path, SIMD and DSP instructions, along with other audio- and video-processing features. The instruction set was similar to other RISC cores, but it was not compatible with ... This project deals with one of the application of vehicles. In this project one moving object is developed such that it is moved as per commands given by the voice recognition module and that command is received by microcontroller using wireless.
